THE VIGIL

Presented to

Charlotte B. Reynolds, R.N.

Directress of Nursing
by the "Class of '57"

August 9, 1957

The Vigil

Forward

"I do believe the world is swinging toward the light,"

So spoke a soul on fire with holy flame.

Amid the dark such faith
pierced through the night,

The dreamers wrought,
and living fruitage came.

To give of self
and not to count the cost,

To learn, to teach,
to labor, and to pray,

To serve like Christ
the least, the last, the lost—

These were the beacon fires
That lit the way.

BERYL
NOLL

LOUISE
SEKULSKI

Theme —

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens."

Ecc. 3-1st verse

Women's Association

Seated: Mrs. Arthur Waddington, Mrs. Reginald Hay, Mrs. B. Kendall Archer, Mr. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Dominic Pontarelli, Mrs. Axel Olsen, Mrs. Nathan Blumberg. Standing: Mrs. George Glenn, Jr., Mrs. Walter Maloney, Mrs. John Hathaway, Mrs. N. Volney Ludwick, Mrs. Thomas J. Vischer, Mrs. Edwin J. Powell, Miss Marie Louise Hopper, Mrs. Percy Miller, Mrs. B. Marvin Hand, Miss Ann Lockhead, Mrs. Francis B. Smyth, Mrs. Herbert Harkins, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Bessie Schofield, Mrs. J. B. Ballingall, Mrs. Watson Malone, Mrs. David Bloom.

Dedication

We, the class of 1957, wish to dedicate this year-book to the Women's Association of Hahnemann.

This group of women has been responsible for many improvements in our nurses' home as well as the hospital.

So often those who work behind the scenes do not receive any public expression of appreciation for all they have done.

By this dedication we wish to express our sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness, interest, and consideration.

Our Advisor

Stepping into a very tedious position at this late date, Miss Crawford certainly proved to be an apt advisor and close friend. Since she joined us in September she came upon some problems and worked along with us to enable us to do the best.

We wish to thank her for her help and hope this little gesture shows some of our appreciation.

Honorary Advisors

SALLY
MADDEN

MILDRED
SITNER

Our appreciation of Miss Sitner and Mrs. Madden as our leaders and as our friends was only one reason for our spontaneous desire to have them as our class advisors. For one year they held the position. Their wit and spirit of justness increased our desire to have them guide us. Leaving, they climbed one more rung on the ladder to success but while here, as advisors and supervisors, they helped us to move in our own way.

For their energetic enthusiasm for their willingness to help, for being good friends, and unbeatable class advisors, we want to thank both of them.

Tribute to Parents

The day that we have worked for, prayed for and anxiously awaited for three years has finally arrived—we have become graduate nurses. We realize that many persons have been responsible for our success—those who have inspired and helped us along a road that has not been without its difficulties.

To you, our parents, we feel we owe our greatest thanks. Without your love and understanding we never could have started toward our goal, and without your continued guidance we would not have reached it. We know that you have played this important role with unselfishness and sacrifice.

By this tribute to you we wish to express the gratitude which we have always felt in our hearts.

A time to plant and

A time to pluck up that which is planted.

Ecc. 3:2

Pledge*

I SOLEMNLY PLEDGE MYSELF BEFORE GOD AND IN THE PRESENCE OF THIS ASSEMBLY:

To pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

The Nurse

The world grows better, year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere
Puts on her apron and grins and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.
Taking the temperatures, giving the pills
To remedy mankind's numberless ills;
Feeding the baby, answering the bells,
Being polite with a heart that rebels,
Longing for home and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile;
Blessing the new born babe's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are still in death.
Oh Dear, what a lot of patience it takes.
Going off duty at seven o'clock
Tired, discouraged, and ready to drop
When we lay down our caps and cross the bar
Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms,
new
In that city above, where the Head Nurse is you.

The best of everything . . .

Medical Department

We're here!!

Is she doing it right, Dr.?

Surgical

This is how it should be done.

Aren't they cute?

Obstetrics

You better hurry . . . She is a Gravida X

Looks good, doesn't it?

Gynecology

She looks better today?

Don't let her do it, doc.

Genito-Urinary Orthopedics

Heave-Ho—all together now!!

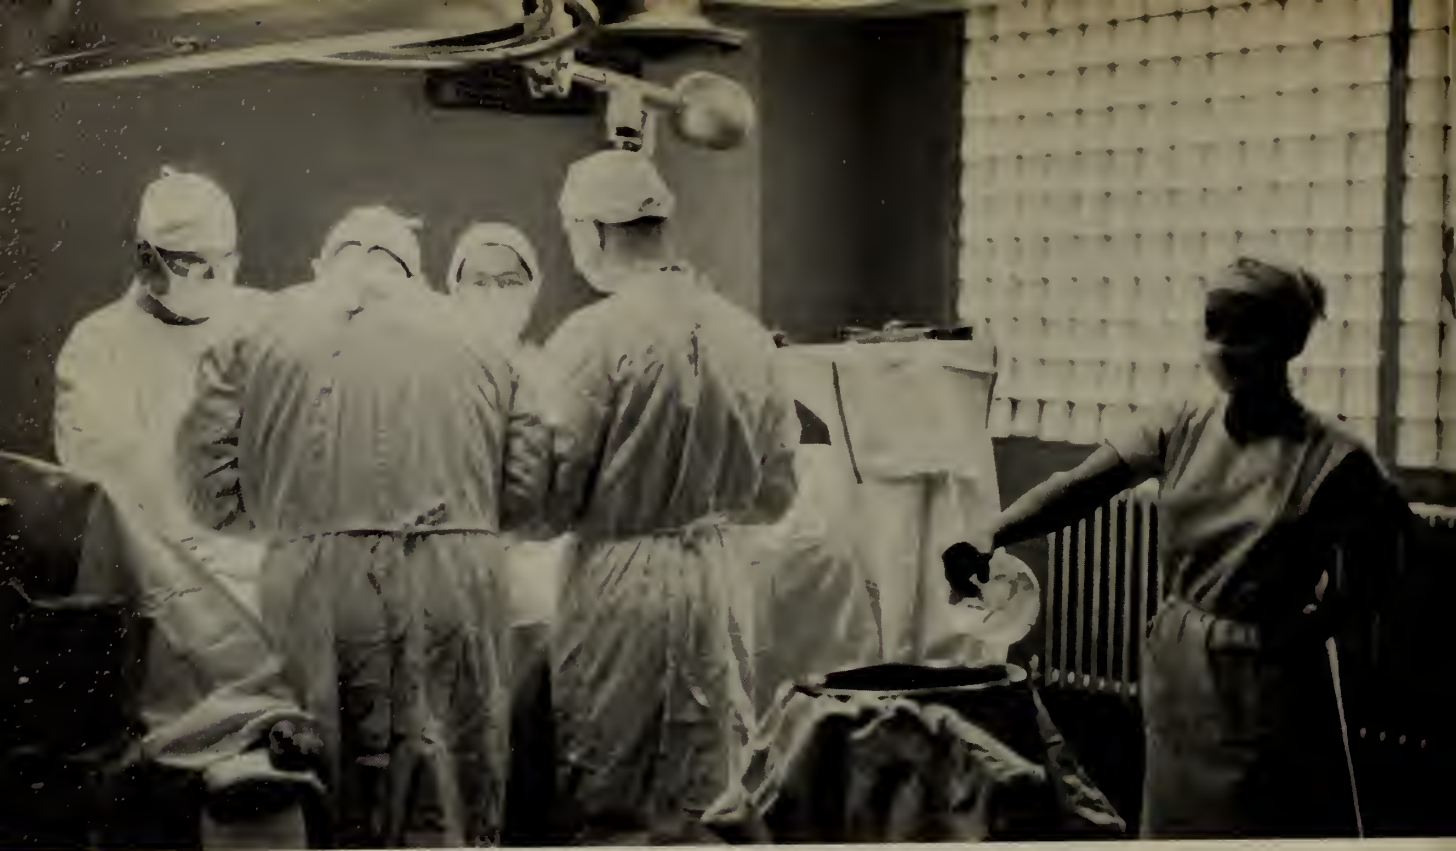

Good ol' home cooking!

Diet Kitchen

Scalpel, please!

Operating Room

Did you get it yet?

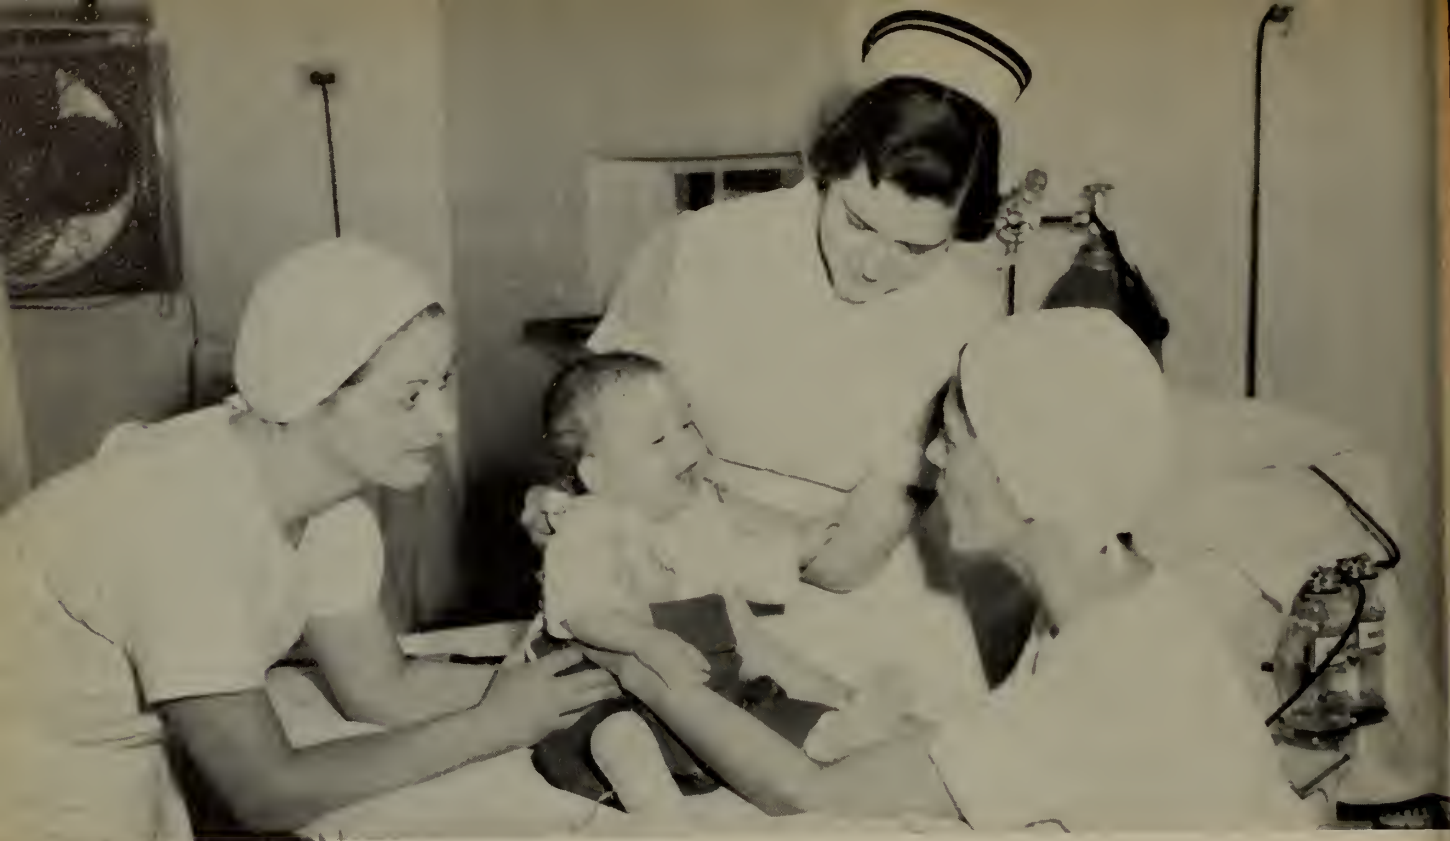

Dig that crazy beat!! Ba-boom . . .

Private Floors

One post-op — Coming up!

Gee, these people aren't so bad after all!

Bronchoscopy

I'll learn to keep my mouth shut!

Hey, nurse, tell him to talk English!

Chest Surgery

Lay it on, Doc, but leave me the bottle.

No campfire around that "tent"!!!

Pediatrics

Hey, Doc, I like her story better than yours!

The modern cow!

Formula Room

Why all the fuss? I was only hungry, Mom!!

Accident Ward

Hey, gang—All I have is a nose bleed!!

One big happy family.

Psychiatric Affiliation — Friends Hospital

REMEMBER WHEN!!

Barnes fought for those "two points" at our basketball games
Basquill obtained her name "Frenchy"
Baty broke out in hysteria at a birthday party
Costantino wasn't on the phone—Thank God for A. G. Bell
Crawford used pinkening shears on her hair
Curry used to "Live" for those trips to the bathroom on GYN
Dew got the pinocchio fever at Friend's—Oh, what hours!!
Dzera and her side kick used the clothes rack for other purposes than designed for
Eberly worked shift for the first time—Miss Tumavich does!!
Fessman was the only one who slept through those 2 A.M. phone calls — and who was it? Jack
Fitzpatrick always managed to get lost while explaining diets
Frawley sat while we pushed
Harper learned the results of argyrol instillations
Henry wrung out supra pubics
Herbrick lost some hair while getting out her "mummy" dressings
Johnson spent her honeymoon at Friend's
Kershner hid behind umbrellas
Kinyon sported her black eyes
Landis had her portable kitchen—Yum Yum!!
Lauer had her many "vacations"
Lins conked her head on duty—Bedpans aren't that small, Andy
Noll lost her slip at the Christmas Dance
Orant engaged in counterspy action with the "little people"
Pharr went through a period when love was greater than need for sleep
Ray asked Dr. Geary "what's new" (Did you ever find the dead horse?)
Rowett played "Mickey Mouse" before classes
Schroeder was locked in the bathroom and came out with "water on the brain"
Sekulski moved to a different room because the "view" was better
Shields had dress rehearsal six times before going out
Snyder was in a daze at the Autumn Ball
Stano hit her finger and lost a nail
Starvatow christened Kinyon's new rug
Stauffer conveniently lost her jewelry
Suttera tattooed her classmates
Traugh played "commando" getting out of the shower
Walter spilled the urinal down the front of herself—in the middle of grand rounds
Whitfield's cardiac involvement proved to be infectious mono, not love

*A time to weep
and
a time to laugh.
Ecc. 3:4*

Senior Farewell

The time which was long awaited has arrived. We found it easy to plan for this day but now that we are ready to take our place in the nursing profession — sorrow is taking its stride.

In these three short years we have shared books, good times, sorrow, and friends that will never be forgotten. Yet we each must go our separate ways — whether to the battle, missionary, or teaching fields; or whether to a home and family we must take our own stand as a professional nurse to enrich our lives, lives of others, our community, and our country.

May our experiences at Hahnemann never be forgotten and may we truly be examples for the world.
